1. State and Union Territories of India

India, that is Bharat, Shall be a Union of State (In Article 1 of the Indian Constitution); it was also known by names like Bharatvarsha, Hindustan, Aryavarta and Jambudweep in ancient times, but after the adoption of the constitution, it was known by two names Bharat and India.

India is a vast country, lying entirely in the northern hemisphere. The main land extends between latitudes $8^{\circ}4'N$ to $37^{\circ}6'N$ and longitudes $68^{\circ}7'E$ to $97^{\circ}25'E$. India is in the northern hemisphere from the latitudinal point of view and in the eastern hemisphere from the longitudinal point of view, whose total area is 32, 87,263 square kilometers. Apart from this, it is the seventh largest country in the world by area.

India is the second largest country in the world with a population of approximately 1.21 billion (according to the 2011 census), second only to China in population.

India is the largest democracy in the world. India, a union of states, is a Sovereign, Secular and Democratic Republic with a Parliamentary system of Government. After Jammu and Kashmir Reorganization Act, 2019 and Dadar and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu (Merger of Union Territories) Act, 2019, India has 28 states and 8 Union territories in the country.

National Symbols of India: - The national emblem is a core part of the Indian identity and heritage. It excites the feeling of national devotion, pride, self-respect among the citizens.

- Title : National Flag

Symbol :

Description : The ratio of the length and width/height of the flag is 3:2 respectively.

It is Designed by Pingali Venkayya. The color of the flag is saffron, white, green, in which there is a white stripe in the middle, in which a dark blue ashoka chakra is made, in which there are 24 spokes.

The National Flag of India in its present form was adopted on 22 July 1947.

- Title : National Currency

Description : The symbol for the Indian rupee is a combination of the Devanagari "र" and the Roman capital "R", it was adopted by the Government of India on 15 July 2010.

Conceptualized and designed by Uday Kumar, a Post Graduate in Design from the IIT Bombay.

- Title : National emblem/State Emblem

Symbol :

Description : It was adopted on 26 January 1950.

The state emblem is an adaptation from the Sarnath Lion Capital of Ashoka. In the original, there are four lions, standing back to back, mounted on an abacus with a frieze carrying sculptures in high relief of an elephant, a galloping horse, a bull and a lion separated by intervening wheels over a bell-shaped lotus. Carved out of a single block of polished sandstone, the Capital is crowned by the Wheel of the Law (Dharma Chakra).

- Title : National Anthem

Symbol :

Description : The national anthem was first sung on 27 December 1911 at the Kolkata (26th) session of the Indian National Congress.

The National Anthem is adopted in the Hindi version of 'Jana-Gana-Mana', originally composed in Bengali language by Rabindranath Tagore. It was adopted by the Constituent Assembly as the National Anthem on 24 January 1950.

- Title : National Song

Symbol :

Description : The national Song was first sung in 1896 at the Kolkata (12th) session of the Indian National Congress.

It was adopted as the national song on 24 January 1950. It has been taken from the novel named 'Ananda Math' by Bankim Chandra Chatterjee.

- Title : National Bird

Symbol : Indian Peacock

Description : The Indian peacock (Pavo Cristatus), the national bird of India, is a colorful, swan-sized bird. It was declared the national bird in 1963. Peacock has full protection under the Indian Forest and Wildlife Protection Act 1972.

- Title : National Animal

Symbol : Royal Bengal Tiger

Description : The Bengal tiger (Panthera tigris) is a striped animal. The combination of grace, strength, agility and tremendous power has earned the tiger pride of place as the national animal of India. It was declared the national animal in 1973.

- Title : National Heritage Animal

Symbol : Elephant

Description : The Government of India recognized the 'Asian elephant' (Elephas maximus) as a national heritage animal in October 2010.

(RRB NTPC 2021), (SSC MTS 2021)

- Title : National Aquatic Animal

Symbol : Ganges River Dolphin

Description : On 18 May 2010 (05 October 2009 in some sources), the Ministry of Environment and Forests of India declared 'Ganges Dolphin' (Platanista gangetica) as the national aquatic animal of India.

- Title : National Tree
Symbol : Indian Banyan

Description : Indian Banyan tree (Ficus benghalensis) was adopted as the National Tree of India in 1950.

- Title : National Flower
Symbol : Lotus

Description : Lotus (Nelumbo nucifera) is the national flower of India. It has been an auspicious symbol of Indian culture since ancient times. It was adopted on 26 January 1950.

- Title : National River
Symbol : Ganga

Description : Ganga River was declared as the National River of India on 04 November 2008, by the Prime Minister Man Mohan Singh.

- Title : National Calendar
Symbol : Saka Calendar

Description : The national calendar based on the Saka Samvat, with the first month Chaitra and a common year of 365 days, was adopted from 22 March 1957 along with the Gregorian calendar.

It is known that the first day of the month of Chaitra usually falls on 22 March and in leap years on 21 March.

- Capital of India: New Delhi - The Foundation of Delhi was laid at the Coronation Durbar of 1911 by King George V as the Capital of British India. It is known that earlier Calcutta was the capital of British India.
- Largest City of India: Mumbai - The official name of Mumbai was Bombay till 1995 and in 2008, Mumbai was named an alpha world city.
- Official Language: Hindi and English - According to the Indian Constitution, English and Hindi (in Devanagari script) are the two official languages of India. The proposal to use Hindi as an official language was first mooted in the Constituent Assembly in 1949. As per this decision, English would continue to be used as the official language and Hindi the subsidiary Official Language till 1965. Then under the decision of the Official Language Amendment Act 1967, English was given the status of official language indefinitely.
